Adam Hardage: Fauci Must Retire to Prison

Just recently, longtime director of the NIAID and White House Chief Medical Advisor Dr. Anthony Fauci announced his retirement plans. Yet, instead of riding off into the sunset, the notorious doctor should retire to a federal prison for all the crimes perpetrated during the Covid-19 pandemic, said Adam Hardage, CEO of Remote Health Solutions.

From his role in funding the creation of SARS-CoV-2, to offering harmful health advice, mandating vaccines, and suppressing effective early treatments such as ivermectin, Fauci caused an enormous loss of life and should be held accountable, Mr. Hardage added.

Since federal health authorities and a hefty part of the medical system are utterly corrupt, Mr. Hardage offers a healthy and workable alternative that would benefit patients, which he calls the “Noah’s Ark of Medicine.”
