Last week, Elon Musk cussed out former and potential advertisers in frustration over repeated attempts by elements of the Power Elite to destroy the most popular digital platform for unapproved views. Dennis Behreandt, publisher of The New American magazine, joins Paul Dragu to discuss why the elites need X (Twitter) gone, and likens the attack to Soviet-style censorship.

Other topics in today's show include:

@ 11:10 | The U.S. government is reporting that Iran-backed groups are now attacking shipping vessels and U.S. water infrastructure;

@ 14:25 | An appeals court just ruled that Capitol police officers and members of Congress can sue former president Donald Trump for actions related to January 6;

@ 21:30 | The federal government wants to install software in vehicles to control how fast you drive;

@ 32:40 | John Birch Society research manager Christian Gomez discusses Congressman Andy Biggs' comments to The New American about the U.S. needing to get out of the United Nations, and shares how Americans can pressure the government to make this a reality once and for all.
