

Rep. Moon Exposes Fraud by COS Con-Con Peddlers

In this exclusive interview with The New American, state Representative Dorothy Moon of Idaho exposes how constitutional convention promoters from the Convention of States (COS) Projects are using fraud to push their agenda. Among other tactics, these convention peddlers are using phony signatures on petitions. And in some cases, COS has used forged signatures of John Birch Society members whom Rep. Moon knows personally! However, despite these dirty tricks, the Con-Con promoters have lost 18 battles so far in 2018, and have won zero this year. Rep. Moon also explains how to successfully rein in the feds without jeopardizing the U.S. Constitution.
