

Attack on Thanksgiving | Duke's Take

In this episode of Duke's Take, Dr. Duke talks about the necessity of Thanksgiving. Progressives are attacking Thanksgiving because of its "questionable origins," but Duke says that is irrelevant. Referencing Shakespeare's King Lear, he explains that the Christian virtue of gratitude is necessary for civilization to survive. Today, U.S. students are being taught that being grateful for your country and culture is "toxic nationalism" and "white supremacy," which is why millennials and Gen X'ers condemn "free speech" and support socialism. Duke asks, "How can you improve your country if you have nothing to be grateful for? You can't - you can only destroy it."
