In 1984, Jaime Shandera and Bill Moore received a package with no return address on it, containing a roll of 35-millimeter film. On the film were what purported to be 8 pages of a Presidential briefing document, which seemed to allude to a secret advisory board composed of twelve members. Now known as 'Majestic 12,' these men were charged, after the Roswell incident in 1947, with retrieving any alien technology and reverse-engineering it to give the United States a tactical military advantage over geopolitical competitors. Were the documents that Shandera and Moore received authentic? If not, then what was the impetus behind the hoax?
