Many of us knew that the Bipartisan Safer Communities Act (or BPSA) signed last June was basically a gun control bill hidden under the veil of mental health legislation. And this fact is proving to ring true considering the Biden Administration's latest attempt to defund scholastic programs that benefit youth hunting and archery programs.

This BPSA is also being used to clear the path for universal background checks and other gun grabbing maneuvers. Will our opponents never cease to pervert the law, or trespass our liberties? The psychopaths who have hijacked our national government, especially the bureaucracies, would deny our youth the recreational and survival skills they desperately need, while setting the stage for a national firearms registry.

And this week's 2A for Today Modern Militiawoman is an audacious middle-aged woman who was home alone when a registered sex offender with 8 previous criminal charges tried to break into her home. After verbally warning the offender, the victim fired a warning shot through her window. He still had not gotten the message, so she finally disabled the intruder when she fired a second shot.
