

Written by D. Michael DeRidder on November 10, 2023

Chinese Running More Than 100 Grow Operations in Maine

Transnational Criminal Organizations (TCOs) run by Chinese citizens living in the United States have been running illegal marijuana growing operations at more than 100 properties in rural Maine, according to an unclassified memo from the U.S. Department of Homeland Security \(DHS\).

Steve Robinson of the Maine Wire reports that, upon investigation, the properties in question all have similar qualities: they were purchased by Chinese men or women, have a strong marijuana odor, have trash from commercial growing products, have a large indoor area to grow, have blacked-out windows, have multiple security cameras, and have heat pumps that are constantly running.

gradyreese/iStock/Getty Images Plus

With recreational marijuana being legalized in Maine in 2020, and federal law enforcement prioritizing the threat of fentanyl, these illegal marijuana operations have been able to take over the state's recreational marijuana market. The Maine Legislature is considering a bill that will help state, county, and local law-enforcement stop these Transnational Criminal Organizations.

Subscribe to the New American

Get exclusive digital access to the most informative, non-partisan truthful news source for patriotic Americans!

Discover a refreshing blend of time-honored values, principles and insightful perspectives within the pages of "The New American" magazine. Delve into a world where tradition is the foundation, and exploration knows no bounds.

From politics and finance to foreign affairs, environment, culture, and technology, we bring you an unparalleled array of topics that matter most.

Subscribe

What's Included?

- 24 Issues Per Year
- Optional Print Edition
- Digital Edition Access
- Exclusive Subscriber Content
- Audio provided for all articles
- Unlimited access to past issues
- Coming Soon! Ad FREE
- 60-Day money back guarantee!
- Cancel anytime.