Congressman Massie Busts Big Beautiful Bill Myths

In this in-depth interview, The New American's Christian Gomez interviews Congressman Thomas Massie to discuss why he opposes President Trump's "One Big Beautiful Bill," citing concerns over increased spending, unsustainable debt, and delayed reforms that may never happen. Rep. Massie responds to President Trump's latest criticism, highlights fiscal inconsistencies from Republican leadership, and outlines his legislative efforts — including bills to abolish the Federal Reserve and Department of Education, and a proposal requiring candidates for Congress to disclose dual citizenship. The interview also covers trade sovereignty, the World Trade Organization, and the Freedom Index. You won't want to miss this candid and critical conversation about liberty, constitutional fidelity, and economic policy.
