The autocratic response to Covid by governments across the West and around the world was not a traditional “public health” operation but rather a military and national security program, according to a new report documenting the evidence from across Europe and North America. On this episode of Behind The Deep State with The New American magazine Senior Editor Alex Newman, two longtime researchers behind “The COVID Dossier,” Brownstone Institute Fellow Debbie Lerman and longtime pharma consultant Sasha Latypova, break down their findings. The implications of the evidence compiled here are staggering and suggest that humanity is still a long way from getting at the truth of what happened in early 2020.
