Also in this episode:

- In what some have called an act of incitement, the DOJ releases a letter written by would-be Trump assassin Ryan Routh, in which he offers a $150,000.00 bounty to anyone who can “finish the job.”
- The GOP-led House prepares to give in yet again to pressure from Democrats for yet another tranche of unconditional government spending. A three-month CR will soon be voted on, and everyone in DC expects it to pass.
- Following the memeworthy exploding pager attacks, Israel opens up a new front in the Middle Eastern war against entrenched Hezbollah forces in Lebanon.
