Election Integrity in Georgia

In this interview with Dr. Duke Pesta, co-founder of election integrity organization VOTER GA Garland Favorito explains that the 2020 elections in Fulton County, Georgia were the most corrupt in the state's history. According to Favorito, an IT professional, there were suspicious and unreliable changes to how votes were counted and verified. This, along with falsely stopping the count, hiding the process from the public, and a sudden rise of democratic ballots over night, undoubtedly points to fraud in the 2020 presidential election. Election counting is supposed to have transparency, but the lack of it somehow hasn't raised a lot of eyebrows. As Dr. Duke points out, even many Republicans are brushing aside the reality of manipulation even though there are pending investigations.
