Donald Trump has yet to take office and the deportations haven't even begun, yet Democrats are already vowing to stand in the gap for illegal aliens. The incoming resistance to one of Trump's most important campaign promises has prompted incoming border czar Tom Homan to threaten Democrats where it hurts, the coffers. Will it work?

Also in this episode:

Are NATO globalists backtracking on the international economy? Now that Russia and China aren't playing ball with the architects of the current rules-based order, Western globalists are warning that our new enemies could exploit our dependence on them.

TNA Senior Editor Rebecca Terrell provides an update on the carbon capture pipeline struggle, which threatens property rights and domestic agriculture and has the blessing of many Republicans.
