Intelligence Employees Attack Gabbard, RFK, Jr., Shapiro, Libs of TikTok

Records of more secret chats between U.S. intelligence operatives show that sex perverts are attempting to undermine Director of National Intelligence Tulsi Gabbard, that they don't much care for Health and Human Services Secretary Robert F. Kennedy, Jr., and perhaps even more disturbingly, pine for the birth of or "intersex" babies, meaning hermaphrodites.

The latest from the ballyhooed agents of U.S. intelligence come again from City Journal's Christopher Rufo, who published the chats in an X thread.

Rufo obtained the chats from sources inside the National Security Agency, and published an opening installment of chats between NSA, CIA, and Defense Intelligence Agency operatives.

We Hate Tulsi

The opening chat from late December 2024 Rufo posted discussed the group's hatred of Gabbard. Officials from NSA, Gabbard's DNI, and U.S. Space Force called Gabbard "'fervently anti-queer,' a 'Russian agent,' and a member of the MAGA 'cult,'" Rufo wrote.

In January, Kennedy fared no better with the group, whose members often disclose their "pronouns," and neither did Defense Secretary Pete Hegseth.

A Space Force official hoped that "senators would come to their senses on RFK and not confirm him, but the Hegseth confirmation didn't give me any hope."

“Expelled From the Tribe”

In September 2022, NSA, DIA, and Navy personnel viciously attacked Chaya Raichik, proprietress of the wildly popular Libs of Tiktok X feed. They also went after Daily Wire founder Ben Shapiro. Both of Raichik and Shapiro are Jewish.

The DIA interlocutor noted that Twitter suspended the Libs of Tiktok account. After some inane commentary, a Navy participant called Raichik a “fing monster.”

“Any Jew who says Judeo-Christian without any irony as much as Ben Shapiro does should be expelled from the tribe,” one participant wrote.

“I’m for expelling Ben, too,” an NSA participant wrote.

“I’m Irish and Italian-American, so I’m used to sharing an ethnicity with terrible people,” NSA wrote.

Replied USN:

It’s a little different for Jews. Ben is like having a relative who constantly spouts hate speech in public and pretends your entire family agrees with him.

2022-09-29 16:59:40 People like that are taking an anti-conservative position. If they were being conservative about it they should want the assistance to be used in the most efficient way possible, which would be to buy the most nutritious food you can get for the price. The food they expect people to actually be getting is garbage and would be a waste of their tax money..

Most frighteningly, the group pined for the birth of children with the birth defect of confused sex organs.

“An intersex at birth would be a great opportunity to raise a kid [non-binary] and let them choose later,” an NSA participant wrote in March 2022.

A CIA participant warned that “being trans isn’t genetic, and if it was, we super shouldn’t want it to be because holy crap that would be awful for us”:

because 100% as soon as someone claimed to discover “the trans gene” (this is the same nonsense people talk about a “gay gene”) you absolutely know that a. people would super use it for eugenics and abort trans babies b. people would super use it to gatekeep transness: “oh you brain/genetic scan doesn’t show that you’re trans, so we won’t actually acknowledge your identity.”

Despite the super childish language, at least the CIA officer confessed that homosexuals and "transgenders" choose their perversions.

"The people who run the surveillance state are insane," Rufo concluded about the chat.

TransMania at the Intel Agencies

Rufo's previous offering, reported on X and at City Journal, revealed that mental defectives and/or sex perverts have thoroughly infiltrated the intelligence agencies.

"These employees discussed hair removal, estrogen injections, and the experience of sexual pleasure post-castration," Rufo revealed:

"[G]etting my b*tth*le zapped by a laser was . . . shocking," said one transgender-identifying intel employee who spent thousands on hair removal. "Look, I just enjoy helping other people experience boobs," said another about estrogen treatments. "[O]ne of the weirdest things that gives me euphoria is when i p, i don't have to push anything down to make sure it aims right," a Defense Intelligence Agency employee added....

According to our sources, the sex chats were legitimized as part of the NSA's commitment to "diversity, equity and inclusion." Activists within the agency used LGBTQ+ "employee resource groups" to turn their kinks and pathologies into official work duties. According to the current NSA employee, these groups "spent all day" recruiting activists and holding meetings with titles such as "Privilege," "Ally Awareness," "Pride," and "Transgender Community Inclusion." And they did so with the full support of NSA leadership, which declared that DEI was "not only mission critical, but mission imperative."

Notably, the intelligence agency employees discussed all this at work — on the clock. This means taxpayers paid for the perverted conversations.
