A lawsuit that claims hospital employees caring for a 19-year-old woman with Down syndrome deliberately killed her by implementing blatantly deadly protocols is set for trial. Despite multiple attempts by the hospital's legal team to have the case thrown out, the judge recently ruled the case can move forward. In this episode, Scott Schara, the determined father of the deceased girl, discusses the case itself, why he believes his daughter was intentionally killed, and how he came to see her death as part of the larger, sinister, depopulation agenda.
