Make America STATES Again

America will remain the land of the free and home of the brave only if the states stand up against federal abuses and say enough is enough. In this episode of The New American Daily, host Steve Bonta is joined by Christian Gomez, who wrote the “Make America STATES Again” cover-story article in the October 14 issue of TNA, as well as Kyle Fleming, who wrote the related article “State Legislative Scorecards: Think Constitutionally, Act Locally!” in the same issue. The trio makes not only the unassailable case that we can save and restore our freedoms by applying the Constitution, which reserves to the states and the people all powers not delegated to the U.S. government, but it also describes the John Birch Society’s action plan to accomplish this great undertaking.
