Recent news reports say homeowners are struggling with higher property taxes, higher insurance premiums, higher repair costs, and declining savings. Meanwhile, young people can't even afford a home. Most Americans can't afford vacations or name-brand food either, but demand for luxury items like cruises is booming among the rich. In this episode, the editors of The New American discuss how dire the situation is for the middle class, why the globalists need to wipe out the backbone of America, and how to reverse course.
