MTG Holds Hearing on Covid Vax Injuries

Yesterday, Representative Marjorie Taylor-Greene (R-Ga.) held a hearing on Covid injection injuries. The event featured Dr. Robert Malone, Dr. Kimberly Biss, and lawyer Thomas Renz.

Joining Greene in questioning the experts were Senator Ron Johnson (R-Wis.) and Representatives Matt Gaetz (R-Fla.), Clay Higgins (R-La.), Barry Moore (R-Ala.), Thomas Massie (R-Ky.), and others.

Greene opened the hearing by saying that she wanted to give a voice to everyone who was harmed by the jab because they trusted the government or were forced to take them.

She explained that the goal of the hearing was to establish the link between the jabs and a great variety of severe adverse effects reported by the vaccinated. And so, the experts did.

Dr. Malone underlined the high toxicity of spike protein produced by the human body to replicate a virus that came from a lab in Wuhan, China.

As a result of high toxicity, or, in other words, the vaccines' ability to destroy our cells, half of the vaccinated — that's more than 135 million Americans — exhibit some degree of heart damage. On top of that, contamination of vaccines with DNA fragments is strongly associated with cancer.

Malone harshly criticized the government for rushing these genetic products to the market in response to a fake emergency.

Tom Renz said the lack of transparency was the central issue of vaccine safety and efficacy. Describing the promise of the government to monitor various databases, the lawyer said the government was fully aware of everything that was going on. One such example was the DOD-run Project Salus, which showed how ineffective vaccines were, with the majority of new Covid cases and hospitalizations occurring in fully vaccinated people. At that time, the public was lied about the pandemic of the unvaccinated.

In light of this lie, perhaps the most irresponsible decision was to advise pregnant women to get these injections. As a likely result, the miscarriage rate increased by 100 percent in 2021 and even more in 2022.

Why does Congress not investigate these and many other pressing issues? Congressman Gaetz said the reason was corruption.

Both Malone and Renz said another reason the truth is hard to get out is the ever-expanding, unaccountable administrative state that has no regard for Congress and the people.

It remains to be seen whether other Congressmen will side with the vaccine-injured and bereaved and demand accountability.
