Air National Guardsman Accepts 16-year Prison Sentence

Former Massachusetts Air National Guardsman Jack Teixeira pleaded guilty to six counts of willful retention and transmission of national defense information. According to Washington Post reporter Shane Harris, Teixeira requested an 11-year sentence, and prosecutors are requesting 200 months and a $50,000 fine. Teixeira could have faced a maximum 60-year sentence if convicted on all six counts.

Jack Teixeira has entered the courtroom here in Boston. He's dressed in an orange jumpsuit. His wrists and ankles cuffed. Handcuffs were removed. He nodded to his family in the courtroom. Now seated. Awaiting judge.
