

Assange Team Member Allegedly Confirms Seth Rich Behind 2016 DNC Data Leak

Lindsay Jones reports that Julian Assange's team has confirmed the leaked DNC data published by WikiLeaks in 2016 were provided by DNC employee Seth Rich. Jones told Emerald Robinson, "They confided in me that it was Seth Rich that leaked the leaked the DNC information, which completely contradicts the Mueller report which said it was a Russian hacker leak."

A federal judge last month ordered the FBI to release of the contents of Rich's laptop to Attorney Ty Clevenger. Clevenger told Emerald Robinson, "They've admitted that they have the actual work laptop that he used at the DNC, and for a variety of reasons we think that there's data on that work laptop that would show that the emails that were later published by Wikileaks were actually on that laptop at one time."

Rich was murdered on July 10, 2016 while walking home. Rich's murder is reported to be the result of a robbery attempt, although nothing was taken. Rich's mother told reporters, "His hands were bruised, his knees are bruised, his face is bruised, and yet he had two shots to his back, and yet they never took anything."
