The DSCA press release also stated the F-15IA's will enhance Israel's interoperability with U.S. systems, and are expected to be delivered beginning in 2029:

Incorporating F-15IAs into the Israel Air Force's fleet of fighter aircraft will enhance Israel's interoperability with U.S. systems and bolster Israel's aerial capabilities to meet current and future enemy threats, strengthen its homeland defense, and serve as a deterrent to regional threats.

The foreign military sales announced today also included approval of 30 AIM-120C-8 air-to-air missiles, 32,739 120mm tank cartridges, and 50,000 M933A1 120mm mortar cartridges. According to the DSCA press release, the tank cartridges and related equipment are estimated to cost $774.1 million:
