Comer Promises Biden Subpoenas

The Bidens will be subpoenaed within days, according to House Oversight and Accountability Committee Chairman James Comer (R-Ky.), who made the claim on Friday's edition of the podcast The Great America Show with Lou Dobbs.

Comer said his committee has direct evidence that Joe Biden benefited financially from his son Hunter's Chinese operations.

He explained that research has been difficult because of all the shell companies involved — each with many bank accounts.

The House Oversight Committee also released a video on Wednesday giving a more in-depth explanation of the investigation.

Responding to its own post, the Oversight Committee displayed a copy of the infamous $40,000 check that Joe Biden's sister-in-law, Sara, wrote to him in 2017 for "loan repayment," according to the memo line. The committee also relayed a graphic entitled "Joe Biden's China Money Trail," which explains some of its incriminating research findings.
