Haley Loses to “None of These Candidates” on Nevada Ballot

Results from the Nevada primary held last night show Republican presidential candidate Nikki Haley gathered less votes than ballots marked “None of These Candidates.” The Associated Press is reporting with 88 percent of votes counted, Haley received 30.5 percent (21,199) of the vote, and “None of These Candidates” gathering the most votes with 63.2 percent (43,893). President Trump was not on the primary ballot and has chosen to compete for the state’s 26 delegates in the Nevada GOP caucuses being held tomorrow.

This morning Haley responded, saying on X, “Republicans keep doing the same thing and getting the same result: chaos. That’s the definition of insanity. This week: ☐RNC imploded ☐GOP House can’t pass ANYTHING ☐Trump lost another court case & threw another temper tantrum A vote for Trump is a vote for more chaos.”

Former President Donald Trump wrote on Truth Social, “A bad night for Nikki Haley. Losing by almost 30 points in Nevada to “None of These Candidates.” Watch, she’ll soon claim Victory!”

Despite trailing in the Republican presidential primary, Haley requested secret-service protection after receiving threats and being the target of hoax emergency calls.
