Haley says she will stay in the race for the Republican nomination, and despite Trump sweeping the first two elections in the 2024 Republican primary, Haley told her supporters, "This race is far from over, there are dozens of states left to go."

Trump spoke with Senator Tim Scott (R-S.C.) and Vivek Ramaswamy next to him on stage, and during his victory speech said, "You know we won New Hampshire three times now, three, three, we win it every time, we win the primary, we win the generals, we've won it and its a very, very special place to me."
