

Biden Is Now 81, and It Shows

Joseph Robinette Biden, Jr. was born on November 20, 1942. The United States was in the middle of the Second World War. That was 81 years ago, and he is now a mere shadow, a shell, of a man.

He stumbles, he mumbles, he wanders, he gaffes, he is a stiff-legged stick man. He is a latent pedophile: the latest gaffe that chilled the hearts of millions was his approaching a little girl, asking her if she was 17 — the age of consensual sex — and she replied that she was six!

This is the individual who allegedly won the presidency in 2020 with 81 million votes. Where are those crowds now? Where are his supporters now?

The fawning Marxist press can no longer hide Biden from the American people, and they are aghast. His constituency is melting away like an ice cube on a sidewalk in Atlanta in July.

Black, brown, young, middle class soccer moms — the demographics who allegedly propelled Biden into the Oval office three very long years ago — where are they now?

Wherever one looks, Biden is disappearing from view. When asked about the economy, immigration, foreign affairs, inflation — fill in the blank — he is losing. Swing states — so-called battleground states — show him underwater compared to his likely opponent next November, if he makes it that far. In head-to-head comparisons, Biden is falling short by high single and sometimes low double digits. The gap is so wide that no amount of voter fraud will be able to cover it up.

Despite his incompetency, his handlers have been able to inflict grievous damage on the country: destroying the value of the currency (it now buys 20 percent less than it did just three years ago), to immigration (bringing in criminals and drugs designed to wreak havoc among the citizenry), to foreign affairs (attempting again and again to involve the country in a shooting war — even a nuclear war — in an attempt to gain a second term, knowing that Americans will support a wartime president, even one who is as vacuous and incompetent as Biden). Not to mention his war on the Second Amendment, unleashing the ATF to go after gun owners and dealers who have tripped over the most trivial of the myriad of rules. Not to mention his support of the killing of the unborn. And this from a man who declares himself to be a Catholic. It chills the heart.

Democrats are beside themselves. What options are there for November 2024? Vice President Kamala Harris, whose poll numbers are even worse than Biden's? Gavin Newsom, the leftist California governor who heads up the rolling disaster on the west coast? The Democrat bench is pitifully thin.

In the meantime the 45th president, who is only four years younger, bounces around the country — when he’s not in court defending himself against ridiculous and salacious lawsuits brought by Marxists — like a high school track star, obliterating his erstwhile rivals and embarrassing their attempts even to think they are in the same class with him.

The country will survive. The Lord God of the universe Who has had His hand on this country since before its founding, is allowing the Biden catastrophe to awaken His people. There may be — there probably will be — difficult times ahead. There may be martyrs for the faith as the Biden administration ramps up its attack on His believers.

The attempt to convert this once-great constitutional republic into a short-lived democracy and then into a mobocracy will continue. But the Marxists, thanks to the Founders’ great foresight, face an insurmountable obstacle: the Second Amendment. There are 120 million households with at least one firearm within reach of the owner. They must all be disarmed — by force if necessary — in order to establish the “peace” of the communist concentration camp the Marxists so desire.

Biden, the oldest resident of the Oval Office in U.S. history, will fade from obscurity into oblivion, and the Constitution, hanging now by a thread, will be restored, resurrected, and serve once again as the protector of inalienable God-given rights.

Biden should be in a rest home, if not under hospice care, and not representing the people of the greatest nation on the face of the earth.
