On this episode of “2A for Today,” host Dr. Joe Wolverton speaks with Dudley Brown, president of the National Association for Gun Rights, about the organization’s recent victory over the ATF’s prohibition on forced reset triggers. The discussion also delves into the ongoing attempts by the United Nations to disarm American citizens through a small arms treaty, and the importance of remaining vigilant in defending the Second Amendment. Tune in for an in-depth analysis of these critical issues affecting gun rights in America.
