President Trump went there again.

This time, he accused Minnesota's far-left Democrat Ilhan Omar — nearly booted from her committee assignment this week because of her nasty attack on assassinated conservative activist Charlie Kirk — of immigration fraud.

More than that, he openly asked Omar whether she knew the eight defendants charged in an astoundingly brazen Medicaid fraud scheme in Minnesota.

Whether that means the FBI will restart or continue the investigation into Omar's activities — a probe disclosed five years ago when it was revealed that Omar married her brother to commit immigration fraud — is unclear.
