RNC Chair Ronna McDaniel to Resign

Republican National Committee (RNC) Chair Ronna McDaniel announced she will be resigning effective March 8, a few days after the Super Tuesday primaries. McDaniel has been the chair of the RNC since January 19, 2017.

In an RNC press release, McDaniel wrote, “I have decided to step aside at our Spring Training on March 8 in Houston to allow our nominee to select a Chair of their choosing. The RNC has historically undergone change once we have a nominee and it has always been my intention to honor that tradition. I remain committed to winning back the White House and electing Republicans up and down the ballot in November.”
