Romanian Parliamentarian Exposes Annulled Election, Shares How Christianity Will Save Europe

The 2024 presidential election in Romania was annulled by Deep State forces, under the lie of “Russian interference,” as anti-globalist candidate Calin Georgescu won, explained George Simion, a member of the Romanian parliament, to The New American’s Andrew Muller at the Make Europe Great Again Summit (MEGA). Simion, who is the mastermind and leader of MEGA while serving as the president of the Alliance for Unified Romanians (AUR) and the executive vice president of the European Conservatives and Reformists (ECR), also explained that if Europe is to be saved, returning to the Christian worldview is pivotal.
