Threat to Rural Economies

A Larger Agenda

The War on Farmers is not unique to the Dairy State. Around the world, agricultural producers are under attack — not only by misguided national policies, but by globalist initiatives such as the United Nations' Agenda 2030. Under the banner of “food security” and “sustainability,” international organizations push measures that restrict fertilizer use, cap livestock emissions, and concentrate control of food production in the hands of government agencies and unelected bureaucrats. All of these policies are connected to the Green New Deal.
