When it comes to limited government, Americans hold a range of views as to how limited it should be. Sometimes those views veer into the illegal; sometimes they serve as nothing more than tangents to take patriots off course. In the case of the “sovereign citizen” movement, both seem to apply. TNA’s legal scholar Joe Wolverton Jr. and executive senior editor Steve Bonta break down the movement and offer a better way.

@ 14:00 | The old “bunker” mentality won’t restore the Republic.

@ 28:00 | We can accomplish more individual liberty by working together.

@ 34:30 | A lesson from Animal Farm.
