NATO nations are beginning to lift restrictions on how Ukraine can use Western-made weapons in their failing war against Russia. Poland, England, and even the U.S. seem to be changing their position by suggesting Ukraine should now target positions inside Russia. This has triggered threats of “global conflict” from the Kremlin. We discuss how this and the recent deployment of U.S. troops to Taiwan is bringing the world close to a global war.

Also in this episode:

@ [22:08] | The judge overseeing the Trump “hush money” trial issued asinine, TDS-fueled instructions to the jury, proving once again the illegitimate nature of the entire ordeal.

@ [40:50] | A new study indicates again that water fluoridation causes brain damage in babies.

@ [49:08] | JBS research manager Christian Gomez discusses the effort to pass anti-CBDC legislation in the house.
