On July 13, 2024, someone tried to assassinate Donald J. Trump. Was the shooter's opportunity to fire multiple shots a result of security ineptitude or something more sinister? When you consider the close proximity of the shooter and overwhelming evidence that his position was known before any shots were fired, the latter becomes very plausible. TNA's editorial members weigh the two scenarios. They also look at other important aspects of the shooting, such as the media's response, and traps to watch for going forward.
