Trump Safe After Second Assassination Attempt

Former President Donald Trump survived a second assassination attempt earlier today while golfing at the Trump International Golf Course in West Palm Beach, Florida.

The U.S. Secret Service (USSS) advance team protecting Trump identified a man armed with an AK-pattern rifle near the golf course at around 2 p.m. EST. The security detail reportedly fired at the gunman, causing him to flee on I-95 before he was apprehended and taken into custody by the Martin County Sheriff's Office.

In a statement released on X, USSS Chief of Communications Anthony Guglielmi confirmed Trump was safe following the assassination attempt:
