America is at a critical crossroads where it will either lose its liberties and constitutional republic or experience a re-awakening of freedom and a true restoration, warned U.S. Senate candidate Josh Clark in this interview on Conversations That Matter with The New American magazine's Alex Newman. Clark, a homeschooling father and successful businessman who retired as a lawmaker after two terms, also warned about organizations like the Council on Foreign Relations, a globalist organization that Alex refers to as Deep State HQ in America. If successful in entering a runoff with Hershel Walker, Clark is confident that he will win the race to represent Georgia in the U.S. Senate.
