

Exposing the Foreign Hand Behind Racial Unrest

In this exclusive interview with The New American magazine's foreign correspondent Alex Newman, U.S. congressional candidate Johsie Cruz, who comes from Venezuela, explains how communist and socialist Latin American regimes are working with other foreign powers to foment racial unrest in the United States. Referred to as the "Bolivarian Breeze," this scheme has been openly spoken about by mass-murdering dictators affiliated with the Sao Paulo Forum (Foro de Sao Paulo), a communist network founded by Fidel Castro of Cuba, the FARC terror group in Colombia, the Sandinistas, and more. Johsie also highlights the Puebla Group, which brought Socialist and Islamist regimes from around the world into the anti-American coalition. The caravan and mass migration are both key elements of the strategy to destroy America. The proof is all included.
