Biden's Enforcers? Antifa Attacks Pro-Trump Stop the Steal Demonstrators

If this is how the Left reacts when they win, just imagine the anarchy that will ensue if President Trump pulls through.

Violence erupted over the weekend between Antifa and supporters of the president at the Washington State capitol building. The pro-Trump crowd had gathered there to bring attention to the alleged voter fraud believed to be contributing to Joe Biden's current electoral lead.

They were in Olympia as part of the nationwide Stop the Steal movement. At one point, a clash broke out between the Trump supporters and members of Antifa who arrived on scene. Cellphone video posted by local citizen journalist Katie Daviscourt captured the moment when police use tear gas and less-lethal munitions to break up a fight.

In a second video, two women tell Daviscourt that they were attacked by a man wearing a "gay pride" facemask and a Black Lives Matter agitator who began punching them until the man in the black sweatshirt stepped in to protect them before he, too, was assaulted.

This comes as the mainstream media has by-and-large crowned Joe Biden the winner of the 2020 race and is even referring to him as "President Biden" and the "president-elect."

In fact, no states have thus far certified their results. Counts, recounts, and legal challenges will all take place before the Electoral College selects the winner of the race in December, as established in the Constitution.

Skirmishes between Antifa and patriots such as the fight that broke out in Olympia on Saturday are only a small sample of the chaos the Left plans to unleash if the election ultimately does not go its way.

The New American has reported extensively on well-funded Deep State groups such as Shut Down D.C. and the Soros-linked Transition Integrity Project, which plan to leverage social-justice protest movements such as Black Lives Matter to fan protests, shut down supply lines, and engage in “street fights” — all with the aim of preventing President Trump from “illegitimately” declaring victory.

In one of its published documents, Shut Down D.C. refers to its initiative as an “uprising” and calls for potentially blockading the White House, blocking traffic, shutting down government office buildings, and even cutting off Amazon fulfillment centers.

Thus far, the mass “uprising” has yet to materialize, likely because things appear to be going the Left’s way.

However, considering the vast preparation and expenditure of funds to put these resources together, it seems odd that leftists would let it all go to waste. It’s possible that they are anticipating President Trump to ultimately prevail after going to the courts. At that point, they will accuse him of stealing the election and will then unleash their foot soldiers upon cities that are unwilling to stamp out the violence, mostly Democrat-run urban centers.

Whether the Left wins or loses the presidential race, it is clearly determined to unleash a storm of retribution against the Right for four years of Trump.

For example, Representative Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez (D-N.Y.) and other leftists have in recent days called for lists of Trump supporters to be made so that such individuals can be punished, ostracized, and kept from employment and public office.

Is anyone archiving these Trump sycophants for when they try to downplay or deny their complicity in the future? I foresee decent probability of many deleted Tweets, writings, photos in the future

Actress Janelle Monae went so far as to tweet (in a since-deleted post) that “every American citizen” who voted for President Trump should “burn.” To see the tweet, click here (warning: includes obscene gesture).

And the founder of the Transition Integrity Project, Nils Gilman, called for the execution of former Trump national security official Michael Anton due to Anton’s coverage and critical opinion of TIP.

It remains to be seen how the election will play out and whether America will have another four years of Trump or a President Biden. In either case, citizens should take caution due to the threat of left-wing violence. It is crucial that patriots make inroads with and educate their local leaders, especially law enforcement, about the nature and threat of the armed Left. The anarchy only reaches Portland levels when local leaders turn a blind eye to the lawlessness.
