Kirk's Widow: His Mission Will Go On. Online Hate Continues; Rep. Ilhan Omar Shares Video Calling Kirk a "Terrorist."

As murdered conservative activist Charlie Kirk's widow, Erika, addressed the nation last night, hate from the far-Left continued pouring into social media.

Erika Kirk vowed that the work of her husband's Turning Point USA (TPUSA) would continue, while far-left Democratic Representative Ilhan Omar of Minnesota shared a video on X that called the slain activist a "stochastic terrorist."

Worse still, a so-called Christian minister — who, apropos of sex criminal Martin Luther King Jr., calls himself "reverend doctor" — unbosomed himself of a kooky sermon that smeared Kirk, while the pro-communist Nation magazine stamped its imprimatur on a hate-Kirk diatribe.

And a now-fired employee at Office Depot refused to print a poster advertising a prayer vigil for the TPUSA founder.

Widow's Speech

Thanking President Donald Trump and Vice President J.D. Vance and describing Kirk's love for his children, Erika Kirk said that "Charlie always believed that God's design for marriage and the family was absolutely amazing and it is."

Kirk advised young people to marry and make families. He said that if he ran for public office, his "top priority would be to revive the American family," she said.

On that count, Charlie's favorite verse from Scripture was "Ephesians 5, verse 25: 'Husbands, love your wives as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her,'" she said:

My husband laid down his life for me, for our nation, for our children. He showed the ultimate and true covenantal love.

But the grief-stricken widow also warned that her late husband's work would go on.

"The evildoers responsible for my husband's assassination have no idea what they have done," she said:

They killed Charlie because he preached a message of patriotism, faith, and of God's merciful love. But they should all know this: If you thought that my husband's mission was powerful before, you have no idea. You have no idea what you just have unleashed across this entire country and this world. You have no idea. You have no idea the fire that you have ignited within this wife. The cries of this widow will echo around the world like a battle cry.

To everyone listening tonight across America: The movement my husband built will not die. It won't. I refuse to let that happen. It will not die. All of us will refuse to let that happen. No one will ever forget my husband's name, and I will make sure of it. It will become stronger, bolder, louder, and greater than ever. My husband's mission will not end, not even for a moment.

TPUSA's planned events will go on as scheduled. "Our campus tour this fall will continue" she said. "In a world filled with chaos, doubt, and uncertainty, my husband's voice will remain. And it will ring out louder and more clearly than ever. And his wisdom will endure."

More Hate

Of the hate that leftists have dumped into social media, perhaps the most frightening is what came from Ilhan Omar, the Somali subversive millionairess who married her brother to commit student-loan and immigration fraud.

The congresswoman shared a video that viciously attacked Kirk.

Accusing Kirk supporters of having a "Christo-fascist agenda," the narrator said Kirk was a "reprehensible human being" who "enacted his political agenda by preying upon weak-minded people" and by "pointing fingers at outgroups, demonizing those groups, and then siccing his massive following on them."

He was a "stochastic terrorist" and an "adamant transphobe." He "believed in the subjugation of women and with his last dying words he was spewing racist dog whistles," the narrator continued:

Charlie Kirk was Doctor Frankenstein, and his monster shot him through the neck.

There's more, but again, Omar thought that material must be shared on X.

BREAKING: “Christian” minister Chuck Currie claims Charlie Kirk is not a martyr for Christ because he preached hatred and division as a White Christian Nationalist.

“He preached antisemitism, Islamophobia, racism, misogyny and homophobia.”

The “Rev. Dr.” Chuck Currie claimed that as a “Christian minister,” he could declare that Kirk was anathema. Claiming that “gun violence led” to Kirk’s murder, Currie falsely claimed that Kirk “preached hatred and division as a white Christian nationalist.”

As well, Kirk “preached antisemitism, islamophobia, racism, misogyny and homophobia,” Currie claimed.

The Nation's Elizabeth Spiers declared that Kirk was “an unrepentant racist, transphobe, homophobe, and misogynist who often wrapped his bigotry in Bible verses because there was no other way to pretend that it was morally correct. He had children, as do many vile people.”

And, of course, there followed the Nazi analogy. She compared him to Nazi Propaganda Minister Joseph Goebbels:

There is no requirement to take part in this whitewashing campaign, and refusing to join in doesn't make anyone a bad person. It's a choice to write an obituary that begins “Joseph Goebbels was a gifted marketer and loving father to six children.”

Office Depot: “It’s Propaganda”

As for Office Depot, it acted quickly to protect its stock price and fired the manager who refused to print a poster that advertised a prayer vigil for Kirk.

“It’s propaganda,” the manager said:

I’m sorry. We don’t print that here.

When the customer explained the poster, the manager refused to budge:

It’s still propaganda, unfortunately ... because he’s a political figure.

“The behavior displayed by our associate is completely unacceptable and insensitive,” the company said. It “violates our company policies, and does not reflect the values we uphold at Office Depot. We sincerely apologize to the customer affected and to our community for this regrettable situation.”

The employees looked exactly as one would expect.
