Montana Cops Arrest Unvetted Afghan for Rape. Montana Rep. Rosendale: Remove Afghan Evacuees

Americans had better brace themselves for an unprecedented increase in rape and other sexual assaults now that the Biden Regime has imported 50,000 Afghan “refugees.”

Cops in Missoula, Montana, have arrested an Afghan refugee in connection with the rape of a woman at a hotel. Biden immigration authorities “paroled” him into the country without screening.

It’s not the first disturbing report about the “allies” who supposedly helped the U.S. war effort in Afghanistan. And it won’t be the last if what happened in Austria after a flood of “refugees” arrived there proves anything.

The Rape

In the wee hours on October 17, KGVO Radio’s Nick Chrestenson reported, workers at Marriott’s Residence Inn in Missoula noticed a young woman leaving the hotel “visibly upset and crying.” She is 18 years old.

“Shortly after the female exited the lobby, a male, later identified as 19-year-old Zabihullah Mohmand, followed the female outside and engaged in what the employee thought was a verbal disturbance,” Chrestenson reported.

Cops received two 911 calls; one from the woman, one from the hotel who witnessed the argument.

“Officers were able to connect the victim with the resources in Missoula to aid the victim with immediate medical assistance, conduct a preliminary investigation, and take a preliminary statement from the victim,” a spokesman told Chrestenson:

According to court documents, the female victim called 911 at around 4:30 a.m. and reported that she had just been raped. She said that Mohmand is on a worldwide trip from Afghanistan and that she had just met him at the Badlander.

The victim said Mohmand asked her to go back to his hotel room, and she agreed. When they arrived at the room, the victim said she told Mohmand that she did not want anything to happen.

Zabihullah Mohmand/Missoula Jail

Governor Greg Gianforte confirmed that Mohmand is one of Biden's recently imported refugees, KBUL's Aaron Flint reported.

"While I welcome our fully-vetted Afghan allies to Montana, this situation and others across the country raise serious concerns about whether the Biden administration is meeting its obligations to fully vet Afghans prior to resettlement," Gianforte said.

Unlike Gianforte, most Montanans probably don't want Afghans resettled in their mostly rape-free communities, but that insignificant fact aside, he asked Biden to stop the resettlements until the Afghans are vetted.

Senator Steve Daines and Representative Matt Rosendale agree. Biden, Daines said, has "failed to provide answers as to who has come into the country or if they have been fully vetted according to what's required by law." Rosendale said the suspect was not vetted through the expected process of up to two years. Biden simply turned him loose.

Unlike Daines and Gianforte, Rosendale doesn't want Afghans in Montana:

For months I have warned of the consequences of admitting and resettling unvetted Afghan nationals throughout our country. These unvetted Afghans do not share our culture and our values, and as this horrific incident shows they represent a serious risk to our communities.... I urge the Biden Administration to immediately halt the resettlement of Afghan nationals across our nation and begin to remove Afghan evacuees that have been resettled from the United States.

Afghan Rape Wave

Rosendale is right to be concerned. When Afghan "refugees" flooded Austria, a major rape wave began. Writing for The National Interest, Cheryl Bernard detailed the "vicious, no-preamble attacks on random girls and women, often committed by gangs or packs of young men." And most of them "were being committed by refugees of one particular nationality: by Afghans."

Afghans "were committing sex crimes to a much greater extent than other refugees," including "the brutal gang rape of a fifteen-year-old girl, snatched from the street on her way home, dragged away and serially abused by Afghan refugees.”

“And that was just one in a string of outrage-inducing occurrences, all of them going to the account of Afghans,” Bernard continued:

Type two words into Google — Afghane and Vergewaltigung — and a cornucopia of appalling incidents unfolds before you. The mentally retarded woman in Linz, kidnapped, dragged to an Afghan refugee’s apartment and raped until she was finally able to escape into his bathroom, lock herself in and, as he battered at the door, crank open the window and scream for help. Incidents like that one point to a cold-blooded predator, with planning and premeditation.

The Afghans “are motivated by a deep and abiding contempt for Western civilization,” she wrote. “Europeans are the enemy, and their women are legitimate spoils.”

Despite what Biden and the Republicans who invited Afghans to live in their neighborhoods say, Americans have no reason to believe their experience will be different from Austria’s.

Federal prosecutors have charged two Afghans who were at Fort McCoy with child molestation and wife beating. Such is the domestic violence there that authorities have dispatched “gender and protection” advisors to stop it.

Biden plans to import about 100,000 Afghans at a cost of $67,000 each.
