Will the Clintons Face the Music on Epstein Ties?

Congressional Republicans have been trying for seven months to get Bill and Hillary Clinton to talk about suspected international sex trafficker Jeffrey Epstein. The couple, who had numerous interactions with the pedophile, recently agreed to finally sit down for depositions — but on their own terms, which may be another stalling tactic.

On January 21, Republicans on the House Committee on Oversight and Government Reform, with help from nine Democrats, voted to recommend that the House hold the Clintons in contempt for disregarding subpoenas to testify. Afterward, the Clintons caved — sort of. They recently “agreed” to provide testimony — but on very specific terms.

Bill's Requests

First, Bill Clinton is asking that questions to him be restricted to “matters related to the investigations and prosecutions” of Epstein, according to committee chair James Comer’s (R-Ky.) response to the Clintons’ lawyer. But Comer isn’t having it. His response to the request is: “Based on our months of correspondence related to these subpoenas, the Committee believes that he likely has an artificially narrow definition in mind.” Comer suspects the former president wants to avoid answering questions about his personal relationship with Epstein and his accomplice, Ghislaine Maxwell, as well as questions about “alleged efforts to utilize his power and influence after his presidency to kill negative news stories” about Epstein. Comer believes that if he were to agree to this term, it “would result in your client answering few questions.”

In addition, Bill Clinton wants to do a transcribed interview instead of a deposition under oath. This is “unreasonable,” says Comer. “As you know,” he adds, “a transcribed interview is voluntary, meaning that the subject may refuse to answer questions absent any assertion of privilege or constitutional right.” Moreover, this condition would allow the former president “to refuse to answer whatever questions he wanted for whatever reasons.”

The committee is also refusing to acquiesce to Bill Clinton’s request that testimony be limited to four hours. He knew Epstein for 15 years, Comer points out. “Four hours is insufficient time for the Committee to gain a full understanding” of Clinton’s relationship with Epstein, or his knowledge of the sex-trafficking ring.

The former president also wants a second transcriber. Comer suspects bad intentions here, as well. He writes: “The Committee can only think the purpose of the proposal for this second transcriber is to enable President Clinton to dispute the accuracy of his testimony and create confusion.”

Comer Refuses

As for Hillary Clinton, the committee rejected her request for a written sworn testimony over an in-person testimony.

Comer concludes in his letter to the attorney: "Your clients' desire for special treatment is both frustrating and an affront to the American people's desire for transparency."

It appears some Democrats are willing to throw the Clintons under the bus in exchange for setting up for their own targeting agenda once they get some power. The Clintons are yesterday's Democratic generation. Moreover, the Epstein saga has made them a liability. Sacrificing them for future power appears to be the strategy. Nine of 21 Democrats on the Oversight panel voted to advance contempt charges against Bill Clinton, while three Democrats joined Republicans to support the charges against Hillary. New York Democratic Rep. Daniel Goldman made clear what the game plan is. "We look forward to using this same precedent when we take back the majority in November," he said on social media.

Ties to Deviancy

The Clintons' ties to Epstein are well documented. There are a number of verified photos of Bill and Epstein together. There are photos of Bill getting a massage from an Epstein accuser. Moreover, Bill has made about 30 visits to Epstein's "pedo" island, and his name comes up in more than 1,000 recently released documents. And that's not even the half of it. The Clintons' ties to perversion, deviancy, and the occult go back decades.

Recall that just days before the 2016 election, WikiLeaks released shocking emails from John and Tony Podesta about the diabolic pedophilia-cannibalism-satanic occultism inside the Hillary Clinton-Podesta ring of power. One of the elements mentioned was something called "Spirit Cooking," a term referring to an occult form of "performance art" that was par for the course at dinner parties in Podesta-Clinton social circles. As we reported in 2016, the Spirit Cooking recipe includes menstrual blood, semen, breast milk, and urine.

Hillary's Many Connections to Sexual Perversion

And in addition to Bill Clinton's numerous trips to Epstein's island, Hillary reportedly made at least six trips. The Clintons also visited Epstein's ranch in New Mexico. Per the Daily Mail, "The former president was Epstein's closest 'celebrity mate' and the Clintons visited Zorro Ranch 'a whole bunch of times', a former contractor who ran the IT system at the property said."

Hillary was also connected to disgraced Congressman Anthony Weiner, who pleaded guilty to sexting a minor. Weiner was married to Huma Abedin, who worked for Hillary for many years. After the sexting scandal broke, police went through Weiner's laptop. Commentator David Collum told Tucker Carlson last year that "if the contents of that laptop were ever exposed, it would collapse the entire U.S. government." He said there were "kill switches" in there and all forms of crazy material. Former federal prosecutor Sidney Powell said the New York police officers who saw what was on that laptop, "even though they're hardened investigators, literally had to go throw up."

Hillary is also tied to a former aide who was arrested and charged with child abduction and child trafficking in Haiti after the island was devastated by a hurricane in January 2010. According to previous TNA reporting:

Laura Silsby and nine others, posing as missionaries for a non-existent Christian orphanage, were apprehended by authorities while attempting to take a busload of Haitian children off the island. Silsby's attorney was convicted felon Jorge Torres Puello, who, at the time, was a fugitive from U.S. authorities for alien smuggling. Thanks to intercession by Secretary of State Hillary Clinton and former President Bill Clinton, Laura Silsby's charges were reduced and she was allowed to leave Haiti with time served.

Interestingly, Bill and Hillary Clinton had been visiting the island going back all the way to 1975. According to a 2015 Washington Post article, "Bill and Hillary Clinton went to a voodoo ceremony in Haiti."

Bodies Piling Up

And then there's a suspiciously high body count that has piled up around these two over the years. Among them is former Bill Clinton advisor Mark Middleton. Middleton was found "shot and tied to a tree with an electrical cord around his neck" on a ranch an hour outside of Little Rock, Arkansas, in May 2022, according to reports. There was no sign of a weapon. His death was ruled a suicide. As it turns out, Middleton had signed Epstein into the White House several times when Bill was president.

Also, in 2018, investigative journalist Jen Moore was found dead just as she was looking into allegations by a 26-year-old man that who said that, as a young boy, he was sexually "assaulted by Bill Clinton and pimped out at private sex parties attended by other D.C. elites," according to reports. "In fact, just four weeks before her death, Moore filed details of the alleged victim's claims with the Department of Homeland Security, detailing the allegations against Clinton."

On October 30, 2016, The Hill reported that former FBI Assistant Director James Kallstrom said in an interview: "The Clintons, that's a crime family, basically. It's like organized crime. I mean the Clinton Foundation is a cesspool."

As of now, the Clintons are scheduled to testify on February 26 and 27, with Bill on the second date. Comer on Wednesday didn't appear overly confident that they will show up. "This will be their third date that we've given the Clintons, and three strikes and you're out," Comer said. "The votes are there for contempt. I think ... there are democrats that will vote to hold them in contempt. So, we're hopeful that they'll come in."
