Pastor Hallett on Reopening Churches Under Statewide Stay-at-Home Order

At the Reopen Wisconsin Rally, in Madison, The New American interviews Pastor Tim Hallett Jr. of Birch Street Baptist Church from Eau Claire, Wisconsin about religious liberty and how churches are not “non-essential” and should thus be allowed to reopen with their full congregations in attendance. Pastor Hallett also gives a message of hope to all worried about either the stay-at-home orders or the current pandemic.
