The establishment and the Democrat party are working to criminalize the political process and if Americans do not get involved to resist these trends, everything we hold dear will be lost, warned RNC National Committeewoman Tamara Scott, who hosts a popular TV show and is on the frontlines of critical battles to preserve the United States and its precious Constitution. Speaking to The New American Senior Editor Alex Newman at the Red Pill Expo in Des Moines, Scott began by highlighting the horrific abuses being perpetrated by the federal government against “Pelosi’s political prisoners.” Some of those horror stories are recounted in the book American Gulag Chronicles: Letters from Prison. Asked whether the GOP was the right vehicle to protect America, Scott said it was a fair question, but argued that the answer is yes because its platform is largely aligned with the U.S. Constitution and what the Bible teaches, even if everyone in the party does not necessarily agree with every single point. Finally, Scott sounds the alarm about efforts to call a Constitutional Convention, warning that Democrats such as California Governor Gavin Newsom is hoping to use the process to undermine our God-given rights.
