Islamic leaders and theologians are growing increasingly concerned about the radical sexualization and LGBT propaganda being forced on Muslim children in public schools across the United States and the Western world, explained Islamic theologian and leader Imam Mustafa Omar in this interview on Conversations That Matter with The New American magazine's Alex Newman. The comments come amid conspiracy theories pushed by some Democrats arguing that Muslim parents are being exploited by Republicans on the issue as part of some sort "divide and conquer" strategy. However, Imam Omar explains that the Koran teaches clearly on these issues, denouncing attempts to claim otherwise. In the interview, Omar and Newman discuss a document signed by hundreds of Islamic leaders on the issue as well as the recent abuse of a Muslim child by a Canadian teacher who ruthlessly berated him for not participating in LGBT pride activities.
