Exposing the FILTH in Kids' Books

In this interview with The New American's Alex Newman, author Debbie DeGroff exposes the horrifying filth that has invaded children's books—including books published by Christian publishers! In her book "Between The Covers: What's Inside a Children's Book?" DeGroff shows that everything from perversion to occultism is invading American homes and the minds of the most innocent. This is an incredibly important warning to parents and grandparents who are thinking about buying children's books: Buyer Beware!
