

Georgia Voter-Fraud Scandal Explodes Ahead of Runoff

In this interview with The New American magazine Senior Editor Alex Newman, co-founder of election integrity organization VOTER GA Garland Favorito explains that the 2020 elections in Georgia were the most corrupt in the state's history. That is bad news for President Trump, who almost certainly won the state aside from the fraud surrounding Fulton County, but also for Republicans seeking to keep the Senate amid the high-profile runoff there. According to Favorito, an IT professional, the fraud was very widespread, and whistleblowers who exposed it are being persecuted, while co-conspirators who helped are being rewarded. The situation is dire and urgent, and the president must act, Favorito says.
