Mamdani, Ocasio-Cortez Advertise Free Child Care for Illegals

Socialist New York City Mayor Zohran Mamdani is keeping his pledge to offer free child care, but with a twist.

With far-left Democratic comrade Representative Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez, Mamdani appeared in an advertisement to entice illegal aliens to sign up for the freebie.

The move is hardly a surprise. Mamdani wants to raise taxes on white property owners, seize the means of production, and abolish Immigration and Customs Enforcement. He thinks city cops are “racist,” and recently called a snowball attack that injured some cops a “snowball fight.”

During his campaign for mayor, Mamdani vowed to freeze rent and provide “free” child care, “free” public transportation, and a minimum wage of $30 per hour.

Keeping that promise, with Ocasio-Cortez, he made sure that illegal aliens help rob the taxpayers.

“My Spanish is not very good,” Mamdani says to open the advertisement. “But the fight for universal childcare? That is very good. So I brought a friend to help me share why signing up for free 3-K and Pre-K this week matters.”

That’s when AOC, as she is known, pops into the ad, smiling and yapping in Spanish.

“If your child is turning three or four years old in 2026, you can enroll them in free 3-K or Pre-K in New York City,” the far-left congresswoman says:

But you must apply by February 27, which is the deadline. Any New York City parent, regardless of your occupation, income, or immigration status, is eligible to sign their child up.

Child care in the once-great city is highly expensive.

“In 2024, the average cost of child care for infants and toddlers in family-based care was $18,200, an increase of 79 percent since 2019,” the city comptroller’s office reported last year:

The average cost of center-based care was $26,000, an increase of 43 percent since 2019. In comparison, NYC-area inflation over the same period was 20 percent — and the growth in average hourly earnings was only 13 percent. Given these rates, and using the conventional federal affordability benchmark of seven percent of family income for child care, a family would need to earn $334,000 to afford the cost of care for a two year old in New York City, four times the median family income or the equivalent of 10 minimum wage jobs.

The program, Ocasio-Cortez noted, is open to people who speak some 200 languages. A news release from Mamdani’s office says applications are available in 13 languages, including Urdu and Uzbek.

“No family should be shut out from our programs just because of the language they speak. ... We can make our city more affordable for everybody,” Ocasio-Cortez says.

As the video closes, the leftists high-five and shout “muy bien.” That’s “very good” in English.

Except that it’s not “very good,” and it certainly isn’t free, as one X user wrote over a video of the appeal.

“It’s not free,” Elvis Trump wrote:

US Taxpayers are forced to pay for it with the hard earned money stolen from them by the government.

Mamdani’s Other Crazy Policies

The move to provide “free” child care isn’t surprising, coming from Mamdani, a radical Muslim Indian from Uganda whose parents are hate-Israel Marxists.

On February 6, he signed an executive order aimed at impeding Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) from doing its job of removing illegal aliens from the United States. ICE, the order says, uses “aggressive tactics” that “hinder public safety by creating a culture of fear around interacting with City employees, including local law enforcement.”

The order prohibits ICE agents, for instance, from using city parking lots to stage operations.

Mamdani quoted the Quran, specifically the pedophile “prophet” Mohammed, in announcing the order.

"I am in support of abolishing ICE, and I'll tell you why," Mamdani told the mouthy termagants:

Because what we see is an entity that has no interest in fulfilling its stated reason to exist. We're seeing a government agency that is supposed to be enforcing some kind of immigration law, but instead what it's doing is terrorizing people, no matter their immigration status, no matter the facts of the law, no matter the facts of the case. And I'm tired of waking up every day and seeing a new image of someone being dragged out of a car, dragged out of their home, dragged out of their life.

What we need to see is humanity. And there is a way to care about immigration in this city and in this country with a sense of humanity. What we're seeing from ICE is not it, and we have not seen that from them in a long, long time.

He also encourages New Yorkers to "stand up" to ICE.

Like communists, Mamdani favors “seizing the means of production,” and wants to raise taxes on “white neighborhoods.”

Most recently, he called the vicious snowball attack on police officers on Monday during the blizzard that shellacked the city a “snowball fight.” Problem is, the cops threw no snowballs, and two of them landed in the hospital.

That lie invited a furious response, as NewsNation reported.

“This was not just a ‘snowball fight,’” said Police Benevolent Association President Patrick Hendry:

This was an assault — by adults throwing chunks of ice and rocks — that landed two police officers in the hospital with head and face injuries.

On X, former New York Governor Andrew Cuomo, whom Mamdani defeated for mayor, leveled the Marxist Muslim over video of the attack. “This is disgraceful. But with a mayor who has a history of calling the police ‘racist, evil, wicked and corrupt,’ he set the tone,” Cuomo wrote:

Words have consequences. We are seeing that in the growing disrespect for law enforcement — just as we’ve seen it in the rise in antisemitism.

Real leaders understand that. This mayor does not.
