In today's episode we interview Lucretia Hughes, founder of Real News with Lucretia Hughes and Fallback Productions!

Lucretia is an activist, a gun rights advocate, a national speaker, and a leading Conservative commentator. Her family experienced a tragedy that involved a firearm in the hands of a thug and she turned that point of pain into a place of power compelling her gun right advocacy and shaping her political positions. She was recently involved in the production of a documentary produced by "A Girl and a Gun" in Washington, DC.
