Boebert Not Out Yet — Holds Narrow Lead in Colorado's District 3

Conservative Colorado Representative Lauren Boebert (93 percent lifetime score in The New American's Freedom Index) now leads Democratic challenger Adam Frisch in the tight race for Colorado's 3rd district.

As the results of the midterms started come in, mainstream media outlets gleefully reported Boebert, one of their favorite Republican villains — arguably surpassed in this respect only by Representative Marjorie Taylor Greene (R-Ga.) and Donald Trump himself — was likely to lose, or even had lost her seat to self-described “moderate” Frisch.

By the evening of November 10, however, Boebert had taken the lead in the race to retain her seat by a margin of 50.2 percent versus 49.8 percent for Frisch, with 98 percent of expected votes counted according to Reuters.

At midday on November 10, Newsweek was one of the mainstream outlets to continue to suggest that Frisch could unseat the Trump-backed Congresswoman. “Boebert is 64 votes behind Frisch, with the Democrat leading by 156,746 votes to 156,682,” Newsweek reported.

By the early morning hours of November 11, the vote totals were 162,040 for Boebert and 160,918 for Frisch, giving Boebert a lead of 1,122 votes.

Left-progressive salivating over the possibility of her defeat included one radical pundit fantasizing that Boebert could exchange her seat in Congress for a new career in porn.

Speaking on Wednesday, “Democratic strategist” Kurt Bardella, described by the Washington Examiner as “a former senior adviser to anti-Trump group the Lincoln Project,” told MSNBC radical Joy Reid, “I guess it might be a gain for OnlyFans” if Boebert lost the election.

OnlyFans is a website chiefly known for its use by young women and others to sell pornographic videos and photos of themselves to subscribers.

Despite such ludicrous liberal smears, much to the Left's chagrin, there is a real chance of Boebert retaining her seat.
