James Rogusky: STOP WHO's Power Grab

Without much attention from the media, on January 18, 2022, the United States delegate to the World Health Organization (WHO) Loyce Pace submitted a proposal that seeks to amend 13 articles within the International Health Regulations (IHR).

James Rogusky, an author and a researchers, uncovered that most egregious amendments can be found in Article 12 Sections 2, 3 and 5. Collectively these amendments cede sovereignty from 194 member nations over to the WHO. This document was well hidden until it was published on the WHO's website on April 12, 2022.

It is currently on the agenda to be voted upon during the 75th World Health Assembly (WHASS) May 22-28, 2022.

The time to speak out and stand for your rights is now," urged Mr. Rogusky.

He called on Americans to share that warning with as many people and outlets as possible, contact their representatives along the HHS representatives that are taking part in assault on American sovereignty (their business phone numbers and emails are provided in this Substack post)
