State Dept. Offers Money to Help Trannies in Pakistan Learn English

The Biden State Department has found yet another way to endear the United States to the Muslim world.

Foggy Bottom's diplomats won't push drag shows, like they did in Ecuador. Rather, they will assist the "promotional development" of "transgenders" in Pakistan.

Just how many transnians in the majority-Muslim country need "professional development," whatever that means, is unknown. But for those who do, Tranny Joe's propagandists will be there with a boatload of cash, and, the South Asian crossdressers hope, plenty of mascara, lipstick, and pantyhose.

As if we needed it, the Biden administration offers more proof that it's sprinkled with enough fruits and nuts to start a new line of granola.

The Grant

The "notice of funding opportunity" for the $500,000 grant is titled "Pakistan English Language Professional Development for Teachers, Students, and Young Professionals," which sounds innocuous enough.

But buried deep in the bureaucratese from the Regional English Language Office are the details about providing such "development" for the crackpots who believe they are members of the opposite sex. Section three adds this note: "Professional Development for Transgender Youth and for Afghan Teachers, Students, and Young Professionals Residing in Pakistan."

Grant proposals of between $25,000 and $75,000 will be accepted for "intensive professional development courses for Pakistani transgender youth from the ages of 13-25."

The program's "goal" is to "Strengthen English capacity and professional capability" of the mentally ill Pakistanis who, again, believe they are the "wrong gender."

Applicants must consider "the multiplier effect," the notice says:

What is the most effective way to reach the greatest number of Pakistani transgender youth and Afghan teachers, students, and young professionals from diverse locations across Pakistan?

The program is part of the State Department's most important mission: "diversity, equity, inclusion, and accessibility," leftist code for promoting racial strife and sexual perversion across the globe:

The Bureau of South and Central Asian Affairs (SCA) prioritizes inclusive and integrated programs that address barriers to access for individuals and groups based on their religion, gender, disabilities, ethnicity, or sexual orientation and gender identity. In accordance with the Executive Order on Advancing Racial Equity and Underserved Communities.

Eligible participants who want to help the crossdressing Pakistanis with their English and "professional development," but haven't applied, had better hurry. The deadline is tomorrow.

Biden's Clown Show

Most observers, including his supporters, knew Biden and his people would let the monkeys run the circus his administration would be. But few knew the lengths to which Biden would go to insult not only normal Americans, but also normal people across the globe.

Apparently, Biden plans to spread the tranny revolution he started in Washington, D.C., to the farthest reaches of the planet. No one is safe. Not rank-and-file federal bureaucrats. Not South Americans. Not even Allah-fearing Pakistanis.

The freaks and weirdos began emerging from the clown car before Biden put his hand on the Bible. Days after he "won" the 2020 election, he appointed a tranny dude to run the Defense Department's transition team.

That signaled what was coming for the military. After he took office, Biden immediately subverted and attacked the morale, good order, and discipline in the armed services by ordering trannies into the foxhole. That, not surprisingly, led to orders that women must shower with men and vice versa, and complex rules that govern how military commanders must treat "transgenders." Military bases now feature drag queen shows. Biden permitted the military to name a new ship after homosexual rapist Harvey Milk.

Yet the military wasn't Biden's only target. He also subverted the federal health bureaucracy by appointing another man-lady, Richard "Rachel" Levine, to the No. 2 position in the Health and Human Services Department. While stomping around in a fake admiral's uniform, Levine has promoted the chemical castration and genital mutilation of children.

But even there, Tranny Joe didn't stop. His most illustrious appointment was one Sam Brinton, a bald, mustachioed sadist involved in something called "pup play," who briefly helped run the Energy Department's nuclear waste program. Clown Show Central expected and even hoped the apologist for underage homosexual prostitution would, indeed, wear lipstick, dresses, and high heels to work. It didn't expect him to steal luggage at airports.

And those are the trannies we know about. How many have infested the federal government thanks to Biden is unknown.

But give Biden some credit. Not all his appointments are trannies who need a year or two at the Giggle Farm. Others are garden-variety homosexuals:

- Transportation Secretary Pete Buttigieg believes he has a "husband" and has become a "father."

- Monkeypox czar Demetre Daskalakis appears to be a leather-bar patron from central casting.
- Spokeswoman Karine Jean-Pierre bills herself as the first “black, gay immigrant woman” to be presidential press secretary.

And again, Biden quickly took his crusade abroad. Before Pakistan, the State Department began a subversive program in Ecuador.

The State Department awarded a grant for trannies to attend workshops, stage a dozen performances, and produce a two-minute documentary.
