X Ignites With Clips of Veep Harris' Nonsense, Word Salad, Cult Mantra

If Vice President Kamala Harris becomes the Democratic nominee for president at the party's convention next month, the Trump campaign has a ready set of campaign advertisements in her many public statements.

X is exploding with the numerous times that Harris went on at length and said, precisely, nothing.

Indeed, Harris often makes Joe Biden sound like a silver-tongued genius.

The Trump Campaign Ad

Indeed, Team Trump has already compiled some of Harris' "inspiring thoughts."

The clever campaign ad, which plays dramatic music in the background, features a number of Harris' great nonsense hits.

Included was a snippet from this line in 2022:

The governor and I and we were all doing a tour of the library here and talking about the significance of the passage of time. Right? The significance of the passage of time. So, when you think about it, there is great significance to the passage of time in terms of what we need to do to lay these wires, what we need to do to create these jobs. And there is such great significance to the passage of time when we think about a day in the life of our children....

Another of Harris' more-recent brilliant insights was that "the importance of community banks is they are, as they are called, they're in the community, led by members of the community. They are people who understand the capacity of the community, the needs of the community, the culture of the community."

Word Salad

Harris tossed word salad in an interview with CBS News' Robert Costa on Face the Nation in 2022. Asked why Democrats failed to codify the U.S. Supreme Court's Roe v. Wade decision that legalized abortion in all 50 states, Harris replied:

I think that, to be very honest with you, I do believe that we should have rightly believed, but we certainly believed that certain issues are just settled. Certain issues are just settled.

Replied Costa, "Clearly were not."

"No. That's right," Harris replied. "And that's why I do believe that we are living, sadly in real unsettled times."

Just to be clear...this is who Biden endorsed as the next presidential nominee.

More Harris Nonsense

During an interview with NBC's Lester Holt in 2021, Harris was similarly mystifying when Holt asked whether she, as "border czar," would visit the border to assess the mass invasion by illegal aliens.

"At some point, you know, we are going to the border," she said. "We've been to the border. So this whole thing about the border, we've been to the border. We've been to the border."

"You haven't been to the border," Holt said.

"And I haven't been to Europe. And I mean, I don't understand the point that you're making."

Libs of TikTok helpfully curated two clips. One features a mashup of Harris cackling for 2 minutes 20 seconds, while another reprises her explaining her pronouns and what she was wearing during a meeting:

I am Kamala Harris, my pronouns are she and her, and I am a woman sitting at the table wearing a blue suit.

A reader's note on X contended that Harris was speaking to disability-rights leaders, including the blind. That still doesn't explain why she needed to explain that she is a woman, or why the blind would care about her attire.

They want this woman to be President <https://t.co/5B4PQpujF7>

"Ukraine Is a Country..."

That approach to public speaking, as if she were addressing children, surfaced in her explanation about Ukraine to listeners of the Morning Hustle radio program in 2022, as Fox News reported. The host asked her to explain the Ukraine war to "laymen."

"Ukraine is a country in Europe," she began. "It exists next to another country called Russia. Russia is a bigger country. Russia decided to invade a smaller country called Ukraine, so basically that's wrong."

Ridicule ensued on Twitter.

Quipped podcaster Clay Travis, "If you're confused about what's going on in Ukraine and have an IQ of 14, Kamala Harris is here for you."

End Wokeness posted video of Harris paying homage to career criminal and drug addict George Floyd, who died of a fentanyl overdose in police custody. Another clip shows Harris clapping along with a crowd in Puerto Rico that was protesting her.

Cult Mantra

Another, quite disturbing mashup of Harris shows her repeating myriad versions of a cult mantra: "What can be, unburdened by what has been."

"Let's talk about @KamalaHarris saying "to see what can be, unburdened by what has been," wrote popular X user James Lindsey:

This phrase, which she repeats all the time, is not mysterious. It's esoteric. That is, it's occult. It's a Marxist and Luciferian incantation, and that's easily seen.

Also circulating is a clip of former Democratic Representative Tulsi Gabbard of Hawaii during the presidential primary debate in 2020, when she ran against Harris and Biden.

"She put over 1,500 people in jail for marijuana violations then laughed about it when she was asked if she ever smoked marijuana," Gabbard said.

And, indeed, speaking on a radio program in 2019, Harris explained that she favors legalizing marijuana. "Half my family's from Jamaica," she laughed when the host asked about it. "Are you kidding me?"

Harris has partaken of the Devil's Lettuce herself, she confessed, "and I did inhale."

Marijuana, she said, "gives a lot of people joy. And we need more joy."
